Introduce Yourself

Good Morning Sir/Ma'am

My name is XYZ from Patna, Bihar. I am 18 years old. I am pursuing a Bachelor of Computer Science and Engineering from Lovely Professional University. Coming to my schooling, I have done 10th class from the CBSE board with 92% and 12th also from the CBSE board with 87%. My hobbies are reading and playing games. My strength is that I am a hard worker, a self-motivated person. I have a good knowledge of C, C++, python core, MySQL, and HTML, CSS, JavaScript. In My family, we are a total of 5 members. My father is a merchant. My mother is a homemaker and I have one elder brother. My brother name is Kumar. Apart from my education, I am always interested to know and learn new things. I don't have any work Experience yet, but I am willing to learn in any domain. My strength is leadership quality and easily adapt to any environment.

My weakness I am not comfortable until I finish my work in a given time. Emotional person. My short goal is I get a job in a reputed company. And my long-term goal is to become a responsible & knowledgeable personality & in the respected position in my company. I have actively participated in Workshops and Webinars which were conducted by Educational Institutions and Organizations, which help me to understand things in depth. That's all about me!

Thank you very much for giving me a great opportunity to introduce myself.
